Madam/Sir,

The Board is conducting the Second Class X Board Examinations from 15 May 2026. Schools may download the Admit Cards for their students from today.

All schools are requested to disseminate the following instructions to candidates for strict compliance:

- 1. Reporting Time: No candidate will be permitted to enter the examination centre after 10:00 AM. Students must plan their travel in advance, considering local weather and traffic conditions, and ensure arrival well before the reporting time.
- 2. Dress Code & Documents: Candidates must report in proper school uniform, carrying both their school identity card and the CBSE-issued Admit Card. Only prescribed stationery items are allowed. Possession of electronic devices, including mobile phones, is strictly prohibited inside the examination premises.

Schools designated as examination centres may also download the centre material for candidates allotted to their centres from today. Private candidates are similarly instructed to download their Admit Cards beginning today.

All concerned are directed to adhere to these guidelines to ensure the smooth, fair, and transparent conduct of the examinations.
